So what exactly is fantasy football?

It is basically a chance to "own" an NFL franchise of your own.

You get to build, manage, and coach a team to the championship game.

You might even get to draft great players like Peyton Manning or Randy Moss.

Fantasy football is a great way to stay in touch with friends from throughout your life, as well as make new friends.

It also adds a new level of exhilaration to the real games you watch.

A game between two mediocre teams suddenly becomes much more interesting if you need the running back from one of the teams to rush for 80 yards and score a touchdown for you to win your game that week.

It's simply one more excuse to scream, yell, cheer, laugh, and cry on a weekly basis.

This short, no-fluff guide shows you how to play - and win - fantasy football.
