The Gospel According to Acharya S D. M. Murdock, Acharya S

What is God? Is belief in God righteous? Should we praise God? Who speaks for God? Is the Bible "God's Word?" Is being religious moral? Does prayer work? Are we born in sin? What is the origin of good and evil? Who is the Devil? Is the Bible prophetic? What is a cult? Is abusing women religious? Do we have free will? What is the purpose in life? What is a truly sacred scripture?

The Gospel According to Acharya S provides intriguing insights into these important, probing questions and many more, presenting potent observations which seek to define humanity in as enlightened and evolved a manner as is possible. These powerful and profound perceptions reflect crucial concepts that need to be cherished and protected as the greatest of human rights and liberties.

In The Gospel you will also discover much fascinating factual material concerning the history of religion as well as many other relevant subjects. This book is designed for both the theist and atheist, as a sort of bridge between two seemingly irreconcilable perspectives. It clearly demonstrates that we can live with both spirituality and skepticism, without compromising our honesty and integrity.

If you have ever wondered about the meaning of life and the profound questions of who we are and what we are doing here, you will find The Gospel to be an extraordinary resource that provides insights and answers to some of life's more pressing and interesting issues.

Excerpt:

"What is God? Is God a giant man who once incarnated as his own son 2,000 years ago through the womb of a Jewish virgin? Certainly not. Is God a man who created everything we see, who speaks to prophets and who writes holy texts? Wrong again."

Includes a bibliography, index and over 130 illustrations.
