Morgan is a first year drama student in New York City. As she meets new kinds of people, she discovers new things about herself. In this quirky coming- of-age tale, we find that love can surprise us, for better or for worse; and that the true love of friends and family can grow with and change to make room for new developments in our lives.

This thoughtful, charming story of self-discovery will become one of your instant favorites.

The characters are complex, elegant portraits of a young generation with the freedom to test themselves in every way they desire. And the outsider hero is a familiar one; but in this case, it's a girl...one we dare you not to fall in love with!
