Why waste all night studying when you can go out and party with your friends instead?

This is a serious book, but you'll have a lot of fun reading it. CUTTING CORNERS gives you step-by-step instructions on how to deal with every facet of the college experience like a master.

Using the methods outlined in this book, you'll be able to get in and out of the painful classes you hate with as little effort as possible.

You'll learn how to:

- Cut down on studying time exponentially
- Memorize test material using your favorite movie lines and song lyrics
- Negotiate with your professor so you can get your grade rounded up
- Skate through boring homework assignments, papers, and group projects
- Pick the right professors in advance so you can minimize your class time and maximize your grade potential

After you figure out how to beat the system, CUTTING CORNERS might be the last book you'll read from cover to cover during your college years.
