Easy Come, Easy Go Kallie Blom

The following is written in the everyday local vernacular for a relaxing and comfortable reading session. Enjoyment will be derived from this easy-flowing style as the story unfolds and one is not bored by the usual and sometimes unnecessary trivia and inexplicable, even uncomprehending, monotonous and repetitive facts.

Two young men are in partnership as PI's and in their investigations they come upon more and more bizarre happenings, which invariably develops into numerous life-threatening and traumatic experiences.

In this fast-action saga love is always prevalent in their dire circumstances and therefore those emotions were not and could not be ignored.

Lust, betrayal, greed, blackmail and hunger for power are but some of the ingredients that is inevitable as the drama unfolds and envelopes a small group of people who are forced to fight for sanity and their lives.

As the saga progresses more abhorrent and detestable activities are discovered and the subsequent events lead to more heinous crimes.

Retribution in the most unimaginable manner is sought by some, while others do what they can to safeguard their own lives.

The reader will not be bored at the frenetic pace of the twists and turns that are prevalent throughout.
