Fish Fingered: Six very British Short Black Comedy Stories full of crime, dark humour, satire, horror and murder Richard Blackah

I hope that my short stories are fun, entertaining and all very British. That's what I'm looking to achieve whenever I write a book. Some are darkly humorous, some more straight black comedy, others are funny and some are stacked full of satire and horror. They're all fiction, it's available on Kindle, and most are about crime, normally murder and I try to leave out the mystery bit. Sorry about that.

Fish Fingered: A man commits the perfect murder, sort of.

Mrs Hecklestone: A wealthy old woman has a dark secret that, once a year, she's willing to share.

Bribery Before Bedtime: Two boys come up with a devious plan to help their Dad out.

Memoirs of a Secret Estate Agent: The man who brought an end to the Cold War reveals all.

Jasmine: A haunting tale from the ocean's depths.

Jumping for Joy: A girl has her fun with two boys and a shotgun.
