Religious Harmony: Problems, Practice, and Education (Religion and Reason 45)

Religious Harmony: Problems, Practice, and Education (Religion and Reason 45)

It is crucial today to understand how religions can exist harmoniously in a shared environment, whether local or global. A reasoned approach to this question was sought by participants at an exciting conference of the International Association for the History of Religions (IAHR) in a predominantly Muslim country, Indonesia. Themes treated include the relation between theoretical approaches and religious viewpoints, practical problems and conflict resolution at local level, and religious education with special reference to the role of Muslim schools (pesantren) in Indonesia.
