I'm not In love with you Anymore - The Adulterer's code. The things he says that mean - "I'm having an affair". Lillian Moore

Do you think something might be wrong in your marriage?

Is your spouse behaving out of character and are you worried something is going on ?

If you are finding that your spouse is slowly withdrawing from you. Withholding love, affection, sex and communication. Your spouse may be cheating on you.

As your marriage is deteriorating and you are being told,

I'm not inlove with you anymore and the sparkle has gone out of our marriage.

This is the adulterer's code for ' I am having an affair'.

Your spouse will not admit to being a cheater and having an affair. They will try to put the blame onto you and your marriage. That is why they give the excuse of I am not inlove with you anymore, the sparkle has gone out of our marriage, I don't want to have sex with you anymore or I don't want to be married to you anymore. All the emphasis is towards I don't want YOU anymore. This is the cheating spouses justification for their affair.

This book is about how I found out my husband had an affair. How I tried to save my marriage after I found out my husband was cheating. And then when I decided I preferred life without a cheater and have now become a happy and independent woman.

I am sharing my story of how I found out my husband was having an affair to help men and woman that are experiencing the same situation get clarity sooner than I did. I also want to show you to not tolerate their bad behaviour just to keep them.

I want you to know with out a doubt that you will survive your husband having an affair and you will lead a happy and fulfilling life. And that you can find the love you deserve and want.
