Pentecostalism and Development: Churches, NGOs and Social Change in Africa (Non-Governmental Public Action)

The New Chinese Economy is a comprehensive look at Chinese economics and an increasingly globalized world. The topics addressed highlight the institutional and cultural forces that shape the dynamism of the Chinese economy today and that will continue to do so for the years to come. Grivoyannis covers topics including economic development, banking and finance, education reform, consumption patterns, the impact of social networking, population dynamics, policy making, and the challenges ahead for the rising economic global superpower.
