Nestled between the Atchafalaya Basin and Sugar Island, a little off the beaten path few strangers wander by, but every now and then something exciting happens to the people of Bon Amie.

All Dan Foster wants for Christmas is a place to call home for he and his son--a place where he feels part of a community, something he's never had. But mostly, a place where his son can forget his fears and just be a little boy. All Trudy Thibodeaux wants for Christmas is to return home, to heal and live her life again. What they find is eachother.
