In the World of Madness: A Collaboration of Satanic Essays (Volume 1) Michael Sartin

Over the years, I have searched high and low for literary works in which elaborate on the repercussions associated with “Satanic Magic.” I have yet to discover a book in which satisfies this never-ending pursuit. In my book, “In the World of Madness,” you may stumble upon some topics to your liking. Much of this book contains “food for thought,” as well first-hand experiences through the practice of Satanic Ritual. Philosophy permeates through the pages, while undefiled wisdom follows suit. My work may be especially useful for those who are gravitated towards the Dark Arts, who have recently labeled “Satanism” their lifestyle. I wrote this book originally for myself, for my own self-satisfaction. Now is the time to redirect the flow. Thus, I pass down these writings to the “Children of Darkness,” born to embrace the black flame.
