Amelia Prints a Greeting Card Patricia Cost

In the letterpress printing lab at Rochester Institute of Technology, Amelia prints a greeting card, explaining what she's doing each step of the way. Richly illustrated with photographs, this picture book very simply but comprehensively introduces the reader to letterpress printing by following an actual letterpress project, using all the correct terminology. A 38-word glossary is included. With Amelia Hugill-Fontanel, associate curator of RIT's Cary Graphic Arts Collection.
