Excerpt from Hymns for Mothers and Children

Since the publication of the Hymns of the Ages, its compilers have frequently been urged to prepare a volume of like character for children.

One of them has accordingly given the leisure of several years to the present work; her plan being, to collect devout, entertaining, and suggestive poetry, - morning and evening hymns, and those calculated to stimulate the imagination, refine the taste, and train the child's heart to become strong, humane, and brave, as well as keep it gentle, reverent, and pure.
