Be Careful Who You Choose For Your Spiritual Covering: What God has not joined together, He is not obligated to keep it together Dr. Kim Warfield

It is intended for women who are going through issues with the man that God has assigned to be their husband. In addition, it is for women who are not sure if the man is her husband, to help her in making the choice that God has ordained for her. It is intended also for men to get themselves together and to stop playing games with the woman God brought to be their wives to either marry them or allow someone else to give her what God intended for her to have, which is a happy marriage.
