What do you do when your animal companion is diagnosed with a life-threatening illness or injury? You do whatever you can, and then you pray. And how do you pray when your heart is breaking and your mind goes blank? You can turn to this book of prayers and stories from those who have been there. Pet Illness, Pet Loss, and Prayers That Help offers prayers you may be struggling to find within yourself at a time of so many intense feelings: fear, sadness, grief, guilt, worry, anger, regret, hope, gratitude, and longing for peace. The authors have drawn from their personal experiences from which they wrote original prayers. They gathered quotes, prayers, and stories from ministers, priests, rabbis, and non-clergy who value the power of prayer to guide, uplift, strengthen, heal, and console. Some of the prayers focus on your pet, and others are for you to help you cope. This book is a unique spiritual support for you and your beloved animal companion from the time of the first crisis and diagnosis, throughout the illness, to the time of death and beyond. Authors Annie Baker and Donna Rae Yuritric are donating a percentage of all royalties to various animal rescues and shelters and horse sanctuary.
